HARPER'S WEEKLY FOR 1867.—VOLUME XI.

The Eleventh Volume of Harper's Weekly, which concludes with the Number for December 28, is a complete illustrated history of the year just ended. A glance at the Index will show that the Volume contains full and complete accounts of all the important events of the past year, including the military and political movements as well in Europe and Asia as on this continent; the great industrial enterprises of all countries; and the manners and customs, cities, buildings, &c., of all nations. There are chapters of great disasters; accounts of the out-door sports and pastimes of our people; the principal religious, educational, and moral movements of the period; together with portraits of the men of note developed by the events of the year—in a word, it is a complete Journal of the progress of Civilization every where.

Each and every preceding Volume of this Journal possesses the same value as a history of the age; and each Number being electrotyped, the whole Eleven Volumes now completed may be obtained at $7 00 per Volume, Cloth binding, or $10 50 in Half Morocco.

☞ Subscribers who wish to bind the Eleventh Volume, ending with No. 574, may obtain gratuitously from the principal Newsdealers a Title-Page and Table of Contents.

☞ Dealers may obtain CLOTH COVERS for Binding the Volume at 75 Cents Each.
